I was looking for a partner in crime when I got stuck in my engineering career. You turned out to be the best one I could find. Your experience matched mine and we both got our degrees. I have always been very good at physics and math and, while I am an engineer, this has helped me develop an understanding of the physics that I didn't know existed. The relationship between the two of us has also helped me look at my situation a bit differently. This relationship has helped me realize that I cannot always trust in my mind to see clearly. I still make mistakes, but now I have you as a partner in crime. I do not know why I have chosen to write a review for you since you are not in the position to accept a review, but I want others to know that you have been a great help. I got the grades I got because of the help that I got from my college tutor, but I would never have gotten anywhere without the help of your tutoring program. I could not have asked for better help. I do have a couple of concerns. If I were to find myself in a different position, I would not want to rely on my academic integrity again because I was on a fairly strong academic team. The next thing is that I realize that we might not always have the time that we need to work together. I am concerned that I might not always be in that situation. I guess that is why I am giving this review. I want others to know that we might not always have the time that we need to work together. If this is the case, we should probably give it more thought.
