Police: Man caught with meth, marijuana charges A man was arrested on drug charges after he was found with a meth pipe, marijuana and methamphetamine at the same time, police said. A man was arrested on drug charges after he was found with a meth pipe, marijuana and methamphetamine at the same time, police said. On July 21, a dispatcher at the El Paso County Sheriff's Office responded to a 9-1-1 call from a woman who said a man tried to break into her home. The dispatcher said the woman told police the man was on his bicycle. When the woman arrived home, she saw a man sitting in his car on Old El Paso Road in Idaho Springs. When she approached the car, she noticed the man "was moving around and appeared to be picking up things," the dispatcher said. After the woman confronted the man, he ran from the scene. She chased him down, grabbed him and yelled for help. The dispatcher said the woman reported she saw a pipe on the ground near the man. The dispatcher said the woman also reported seeing an unknown substance in a cup on the ground. After the woman grabbed the man, he got into his car and drove away. The dispatcher said the man appeared to be on his cell phone, but he stopped the car in the middle of the street. The dispatcher said she could hear the man arguing and slamming the car door. When officers arrived, they were able to locate the man and a small amount of methamphetamine in the car. Officers searched the car and found a pipe, a pill bottle, a marijuana roach and a small amount of marijuana. The man, identified as Dwayne F. Gray, 26, of Idaho Springs, was arrested on suspicion of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a drug paraphernalia. The dispatcher said Gray appeared to be under the influence of a drug. She said she did not know why Gray appeared to be moving around while sitting in the car. Gray told officers he was heading to the apartment where the woman lived when he saw 2d92ce491b
