Discharge was scheduled for August 14, 2014, but on August 8, 2014, Griffin filed a notice of bankruptcy. In response, the Bankruptcy Court granted the Trustee's motion to extend time for disbursement, but then on October 15, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court issued an order approving disbursement of the sale proceeds and directing payment to the creditor. Subsequently, on October 28, 2015, the Trustee filed a motion to dismiss 1 The Bankruptcy Court dismissed the Second Case as a bad faith filing on April 7, 2014. The Trustee appealed that decision to this Court, which reversed and remanded on October 12, 2015. The Second Case was dismissed on April 7, 2017. 2 In a brief, the Trustee contends that the Trustee's disclosure of the Section 363 sale transferred interest to him because it was for "any benefit to the estate." (See Appellant's Brief, at 7.) The record does not support this assertion. The only benefit the Trustee received was payment for the fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with representing the estate. -5- J-A27030-16 the Third Case, arguing that because the sale occurred pre-petition and the Bankruptcy Court approved the sale and directed that the proceeds be paid to Griffin's creditor, the sale had no effect on the Trustee's interest in the proceeds.
